Always a pleasure to share the main stage with other fund managers at the RSMR investment conference last week. Really interesting presentations from Simon Edelsten, Colin Morton and Andrew Stobart.

Gutted to have left before the awards in the evening but Jonathan Braithwaite and Sean Gardner were only too happy to pick up the award for Legal & General Investment Management for best Multi-Asset Group. Great team effort.

Thank you to the hosts for being so organised and providing such an excellent brief. ”

Fund Manager, Head of Retail Multi-Asset Funds, Legal & General Investment Management

My 5th RSMR conference and the best investment conference of the year. I've picked up lots of tips and up to the minute knowledge from fund managers.

THE R AWARDS

rated the event as excellent or very good quality

The R Awards started in 2014 at our first conference and are presented by the Directors of RSMR, Geoff Mills and Ken Rayner. We've had the same design since 2014 but we unveiled our new creation at our recent conference, which is a bit like the Bafta's, only better!

Amongst others, we presented to the best Fixed Interest Group, the best Multi Asset Group, the best Equity Group & the Rising Star of fund management. We apply a whole host of quantitative filters, over a minimum period of five years, using both risk and volatility criteria to produce a short list. The members of the RSMR research team then apply their own qualitative views and vote confidentially and independently on their choices.
